UAB HONOR CHOIR

Concert & Chamber Choir Students & Parents,

Grissom Choir's Concert & Chamber Choirs will be traveling down to The University of Alabama in Birmingham for their Annual UAB Honor Choir, where both choirs will be featured as a guest performing ensemble at the final concert. It is a great honor to be selected to perform at this event every year, and I know our students will enjoy participating in this festival.

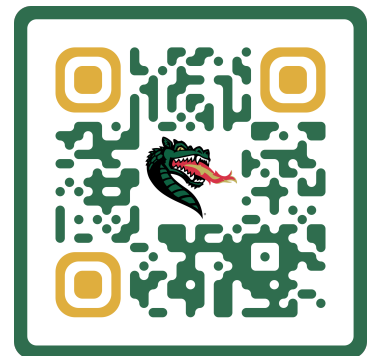

Please see this packet which details everything concerning this 1-day trip. Should you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to reach out

Grissom Choir Procedures:

- Respect Chaperones, Directors, and all others involved in this trip. Do not back talk or argue with any individual when asked or told what to do. Chaperones are acting under the guidance of the director. We are all working together to ensure safety.
- Known your check-in times and locations. You must be on time!
- Do not approach strangers or allow them into our group. Safety is paramount. Do nothing that could endanger yourself or others
- Be courteous and use appropriate manners at all times. Clean up after yourself (bus, festival, or any other location). Headphones are required for all electronic devices. Please talk in your "normal" voice. Refrain from the use of strong smelling perfumes, lotions, or deodorants
- This is a Grissom Choir Trip, not a romantic adventure. There will be no public or private displays of affection on this trip.

Festival Procedures:

- While at the festival, students and chaperones must remain together.
- If you get separated, call an individual from your group or your chaperone.
- If a medical issue arises with a student or chaperone, individuals are to immediately get in touch with their group chaperone, head chaperone, director, and/or HCS Medical Assistant.
- Keep your personal belongings close at all times and to protect your money.
